ENTERPRISE STALLS: CHRISTMAS THEME

The pupils have been developing their numeracy and entrepreneurial skills to produce and price items for sale as part of the school's Enterprise Week. The children will be running the Enterprise Stalls on Friday, 2nd December from 2.30 to 3.30pm for each class. Please come along to view and purchase the marvellous Christmas items the children have been making! The school choir will be performing the Christmas songs they have been practicing on the day. The pupils from each class will have the task of planning how they spend their profit. We hope to let you know via the newsletter what the pupils chose in the New Year.

CHRISTMAS PRODUCTION OH, WHAT A NIGHT!

This year our pupils will be performing their Christmas production of "Oh, What a Night!", written by Miss Emma Coates. Tickets will be available for the following performances:

Monday, 12th December afternoon performance at 1.30pm

Monday, 12th December evening performance at 6.00pm

Tuesday, 13th December evening performance 6.00pm

Tickets available from the school office and order forms attached to this Newsletter.
